

1,633 people experiencing homelessness were housed in Nashville from August 2022 through July 2023. This is a 23% decrease from last year (August 2021 through July 2022.)

Source: De-duplicated Nashville–Davidson County HMIS data including permanent housing exits and move-in dates from Emergency Shelters*, Transitional Housing, Street Outreach, Rapid Rehousing, Permanent Housing, Coordinated Entry (CE), and Domestic Violence Coordinated Entry (DV CE)****.

*This data does not include information from the Nashville Rescue Mission.

**DV CE data only includes the heads of household's information, and may under-represent the number of people fleeing domestic violence who were housed.

- Our community's Permanent Supportive Housing programs have had a 98% retention rate so far in 2023.

- Our community's monthly housing number in July was the lowest it has been since September 2022.
- Only 40% of the people housed in the month of July were Black, while 45% of the people experiencing homelessness in Nashville are Black.
